Thank You Dale, For 62 Years of Service!

Long-time BlueOx Credit Union Board Member, Dale Dittmer, is retiring from the volunteer Board of Directors at the end of his term in April. BlueOx Credit Union member since 1959, Dale was elected to the Board of Directors in 1988. During his time, he served as Board Treasurer, as well as on a variety of committees such as: Executive, Budget, ALM, and Building & Equipment Committee. Dale has participated in two CEO searches and was involved in establishing all six of BlueOx Credit Union's branch offices.

Dale knows the importance of education as he is a retired school superintendent and brought his love of learning to his board position. He has attended several Credit Union National Association (CUNA) conferences and Michigan Credit Union League (MCUL) events, completing certifications and board educational requirements.

"Dale's long-standing support, industry, and institutional knowledge have been invaluable to BlueOx Credit Union. He's always steered our attention toward member value and Credit Union financial stability, and support to our staff," said BlueOx Credit

Union Chief Executive Officer, Steve Cobb. "His dedication to us has been vital to our success."
