Random Acts of Kindness Day

"How do you change the world? One random act of kindness at a time."

February 17 was Random Acts of Kindness Day! Our amazing BlueOx team celebrated by delivering muffins and chips to our local firefighters, bringing flowers to Goodwill and Pine Ridge of Plumbrook Senior Living, and taking donuts to the Lakeland Elementary Staff!

Black History Month

What does Black History Month mean to you?

“As a woman of color black history month holds a deep personal significance. It is a time to celebrate the achievement's, resilience and contributions of black individuals throughout history. Its an opportunity to honor the struggles and triumphs of those who have paved the way, and to reflect on the ongoing journey toward equality and Justice!”

-Terrelle Gant | Lead Teller

IN HONOR OF BLACK HISTORY MONTH

In honor of Black History Month, we asked our BlueOx team to share what Black History Month means to them and what credit unions can do to uplift and empower the Black community. Thank you, Terrelle and Leslie, for sharing your thoughts with us.

BlueOx Community Scholarships

BlueOx is pleased to offer scholarships to graduating high school seniors who are members of the Credit Union and are pursuing any form of postsecondary education. Applications are now open and are due on March 1, 2024. Click the following button to apply today!
