Smart Money Moves: Financial Action Items for High School Grads

It's officially graduation season for the Class of '24! Here are several best practices for high school graduates who may not know where to start with money management.

Creating a budget, setting up a checking account, and building good credit are just a few ways graduates can set themselves up for success. If you need guidance, our trusted partners at GreenPath offer free financial counseling!

Police Appreciation Week

In celebration of Police Appreciation Week, our Jackson branch delivered cupcakes and cookies from The Five Forks to the City of Jackson Police Department! Thank you to all the officers who serve and protect our communities every day.

Summer Fun on a Budget!

As the school year ends, don't let the costs of summer camps and activities catch you off guard. Update your financial knowledge and use Zogo's Goal Planner tool to set financial goals and make this summer unforgettable and financially stress-free!
